DEATH IN WATER; FUNERAL IN RAIN

Mr. Barraud Laid to Rest Yesterday Afternoon-Brother Ignorant of Bereavement

The funeral of Mr. St. J. W. Barraud, whose body was found in the dock Wednesday afternoon, took place at the grave in Oakwood Cemetery at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, Rov. W. E. Evans, D. D., rector of Monumental Church, conducted the afternoon. Roy. W. E. Byans, D. R. Peter tor of Monumental Church, conducted the service. The family and a few intimate friends attended.

The absent member of the family was Mr. Philip St. George Barraud, the attorney, brother of the deceased.

Mr. Barraud is in New York on business, and his parents, not knowing where he is stopping there could not notify him of his brother's death. Mr. Barraud has been away several weeks. He had some business in New York to attend to, and picked the time when his wife usually visited her parents at Scotland Neck, N. C., to go North. Since away his parents here have not heard from him and do not know whether his wife has or not. The attorney is well able to take care of himself and quite frequently when away for several weeks at a time has not written to his parents. They are not in the least accustomed to feel uneasy about him, and do not now, however much they wish for him in the time of their great distress. Mr. Barraud married a Miss Smith, of Scotland Neck, N. C.
